Short Responses

Your recommendation is a very important factor in the review process of this applicant. The program the applicant is applying to is unique, rigorous and full time. The student spends the first year of studies at UW Bothell, and then attends the Everett Community College RN program for two years. Upon completion of the RN program, the student returns to UW Bothell to complete the last year of academic coursework.

1. How prepared do you perceive the applicant to be for a nursing major which emphasizes the biological and social sciences, and interpersonal, oral and written skills. Please provide examples and/or insights. Suggested word count is 200.
2. How does this student approach challenges or obstacles? What steps have you seen this student take to overcome difficulties (either academic or personal)? Suggested word count is 200.

3. Is there anything else you’d like to share with us regarding the applicant? Suggested word count is 100.

See page three for ranking sheet to be completed.
