

UWB MBA Programs: Policy on enrolling Tuition Exempt students

The Business Program at the University of Washington Bothell (UWB) has limited tuition-exemption enrollment in the MBA program in order to maintain academic excellence and fiscal viability. Students starting in the MBA Program in Autumn Quarter 2010 and beyond will not be allowed to use tuition exemption to enroll in any of the following MBA courses:

- B BUS 501: Leadership, Team Process & Decision Making
- B BUS 502: Quantitative Methods and Business Statistics
- B BUS 503: Financial & Managerial Accounting
- B BUS 504: Economics for Business Leaders
- B BUS 505: Financial Management
- B BUS 506: Marketing Management
- B BUS 508: Business Law and Ethics
- B BUS 510: Organizational Theory & Knowledge Management
- B BUS 511: Strategic Management in High-Technology Firms
- B BUS 512: Strategy

Students will be allowed to use their tuition exemption to enroll in MBA courses other than those listed above, on a space-available basis.

Registration Procedures

In order to register using tuition exemption, students should carefully follow the steps identified in UWB registration guidelines. Questions regarding the procedure are to be directed to the UW Bothell Registrar.

The Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs at the University of Washington Bothell is responsible for the content of this policy. Changes to this policy have to be approved by the Chancellor of the University of Washington Bothell.
