Do you find yourself spending too much time fixing grammatical errors in ESL students' writing assignments? Would you like to provide your students with strategies to improve their writing before it's turned in? Then attend the next TIPS workshop on "ESL Writing Assessment: Approaches to Commenting and Error Correction" to gain effective assessment and feedback strategies for you and self-editing strategies for your students.

Sponsored by the Teaching and Learning Center. Facilitated by Dr. Young Min.