TO THE APPLICANT: Under provisions of Public Law 93-380, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, and under University guidelines pursuant to that Act, a student (defined as any person who has been officially admitted and registered at the University of Washington) has the right to review recommendations made in his or her behalf unless the student waives this right at the time the recommendation is solicited. If you wish to waive your right to review, please indicate by signing in the space below. Applicants who are denied admission to the Nursing Program or who do not begin the program do not have access to this recommendation at any time.

I hereby waive my right to review this recommendation.
