

Mandatory Promotion & Tenure Timeline AY 16-17, Non-Divisionalized

Mandatory Review - Autumn 2016: Assistant Professor to Associate Professor with Tenure

Mandatory Review Portfolio Deadline: Candidates' portfolio guideline and submission dates to be provided by their respective schools. Schools' portfolio review period to be completed in its entirety in time to submit the completed portfolio to the VCAA by or on November 2, 2016 is a hard deadline. Other timelines are approximate.

Winter Quarter 2016
Due Date	Action Due
March 7	Notification from VCAA to deans regarding mandatory and non-mandatory promotion review process. Deans/Chair notify eligible faculty.
Spring Quarter 2016
Due Date	Action Due
March 28	The Dean notifies relevant staff of mandatory promotion review.
April 15	Dean and candidate meet to discuss process and procedures including potential review subcommittee membership. Candidate provides dean with a list of three to five qualified external reviewers (faculty from outside the University of Washington campus system) who may be selected to referee their materials and write letters to the review subcommittee.
May 2	Dean selects review subcommittee of senior faculty, informs candidate of subcommittee members' names, and schedules the first meeting. Initial draft of portfolio is completed and sent to subcommittee.
May 16	First meeting of the review subcommittee is held. The candidate may join the subcommittee for a portion of the meeting to receive feedback regarding the portfolio. The overall review process is discussed and timelines established. External reviewers are identified and a list of five individuals is sent to the dean.
May 30	Dean solicits participation of external reviewers.
June 6	Candidate finalizes portfolio for external review.
June 13	Dean sends letters and review materials to external reviewers.
Summer Quarter 2016
Due Date	Action Due
September 1	Candidate finalizes portfolio and submits to dean. External reviews are completed and returned to the dean.
Autumn Quarter 2016
Due Date	Action Due
September 12	All final materials including the external review letters are sent to the candidate's review subcommittee.
October 5	The subcommittee's review is completed and the subcommittee chair writes a report of the review to the dean. A written summary of the report and the subcommittee's recommendation is provided by the dean to the candidate without names and specific attributions of external reviewers and vote counts.

October 12	The candidate acknowledges in writing within seven calendar days receipt of the report and may choose at that time to provide a written response to the report.
October 20	A copy of the candidate's acknowledgement and response is included with the candidate's portfolio for review by school faculty senior in rank and eligible to vote before the school discussion and promotion vote occurs. The eligible faculty meet to consider the candidate's review subcommittee's recommendation and to vote. Following the school discussion and vote, the dean prepares a summary of the discussion and recommendation and provides this summary to the candidate without specific attributions and vote counts.
October 27	The candidate acknowledges in writing within seven calendar days receipt of the report and may choose at that time to provide a written response to the report.
October 31	The dean writes an independent analysis and recommendation to the VCAA. The dean may, at his or her discretion, share his or her recommendations with the candidate.
November 2 Portfolio due to the VCAA's Office	The dean forwards the portfolio containing original of all required elements to the VCAA. The dean provides the VCAA with access to the candidate's electronic file and in turn the VCAA provides access to the Campus Council on Promotion, Tenure, and Faculty Affairs (Campus Council).
November 23	The Campus Council reviews the materials and submits a written review and recommendation to the VCAA. If the review is unfavorable, or conflicts with the faculty vote, the Campus Council submits recommendation with reasons to candidate with specific attributions and votes omitted.
December 1	The VCAA reviews the materials and consults with the Chancellor to determine a recommendation to the Provost. Prior to the issuance of a decision or recommendation by the VCAA that is not favorable the candidate shall be provided with the initial recommendation and reasons therefore. The VCAA or designee shall discuss the case with the candidate. The candidate acknowledges in writing the discussion and may provide a response in writing within seven calendar days of the discussion. If the VCAA recommendation is favorable or if the decision is mandatory the VCAA shall transmit recommendation and candidate's response, if it exists, to the candidate and to the Provost. Specific attributions and vote counts will be omitted from recommendation to candidate. If the recommendation is not favorable and not mandatory, and the candidate has responded in writing, the VCAA shall transmit decision and response to the Provost for information purposes only.
December 15	The original hard copy of the portfolio is forwarded with the VCAA's recommendation to the Provost Office.
