THE BASICS

TYPES OF COLLEGES

When looking for a college, the ultimate goal is finding the right fit. Start by identifying the type of school you want to attend. There is no one type of school that fits everyone’s needs and educational goals. Which of these types of schools sound like a good fit for you?

PUBLIC UNIVERSITY
A 4-year institution that receives public funding from the government, and usually offers many major and minor options. Tuition ranges for in state and out of state students. Degrees offered will range from Bachelor’s, Master’s, to Doctorate Degrees.

PRIVATE UNIVERSITY
A 4-year institution supported by tuition, endowment, and donations and not operated by the government. They are typically more expensive than public colleges. Some are closely affiliated with religious organizations.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Generally, a 2-year institution of higher education that anyone can attend and offers different levels of instruction adapted to fit the needs of the community. Degrees offered will range from Certificates to Associate Degrees.

ARTS COLLEGE
A school that provides training in areas such as photography, music, theater or fashion design. Most of these colleges offer Associate or Bachelor’s Degrees in the fine arts or a specialized field.

TECHNICAL/ VOCATIONAL SCHOOL
A school that offers specialized training in a particular industry or career. Possible programs of study include the culinary arts, fire fighting, dental assistant and medical-records technology. These colleges usually offer Certificates or Associate Degrees.
TYPES OF DEGREES

Deciding what degree you are hoping to receive will help narrow down the type of college that you will be searching for. Here are a list of possible degrees/certificates you can obtain in college.

A DOCTORATE DEGREE is the highest degree attainable. It qualifies the individual to teach at the university level in that particular field and/or to work in a specific profession. The duration of the program can range anywhere from four to ten years.

This is the standard GRADUATE-LEVEL DEGREE. It is granted to those who have demonstrated a mastery of a specific field of study or professional practice. It usually consists of a full-time 2-year program of study.

The standard 4-year college degree. It is offered in hundreds of subjects at 4-year institutions and numerous online schools. A BACHELOR’S DEGREES is a usually prerequisite for all graduate and doctorate programs.

This basic 2-year college degree is often awarded at community colleges. ASSOCIATE DEGREES involve a set of basic preparatory coursework, equivalent to the first two years of a Bachelor’s program.

CERTIFICATION in a specific field (medical assistant, paralegal, technician, etc.). These programs tend to be between 6 weeks to a year. Most require a High School Diploma or GED.

According to the 2015 US Census Bureau, only 1.58% of Americans have obtained a Doctorate Degree. Will you be part of that percentage?
“I wanted a larger school with a rich history and plenty of space on campus to roam around.”

“I was looking for a school that focused on being creative and offered majors in art.”

“Smaller class sizes were most important to me, but I didn’t want to pay a lot of money for that.”

WHAT’S IMPORTANT TO YOU?

Rank these factors by how important they are to you by numbering each on a scale from 1 - 6 (1 = most important)

- Areas of Study
- Housing
- Cost & Financial Aid
- Campus Demographics
- Location
- Sports & Extracurricular Activities

What other factors are important to you?

COLLEGE SEARCH FACTORS

What’s important to you when looking for colleges? There are different things that should factor into your search process that can give you direction on how to start looking for schools. Below are some of many common college search factors.

AREAS OF STUDY

The programs/majors/degrees that a school offers. Many universities offer a variety of subjects to study while some colleges specialize in specific areas like Art or Nursing.

CAMPUS DEMOGRAPHICS

The makeup of the student body at a school, including ethnicity, gender, age, religious affiliation, size, etc.

COST & FINANCIAL AID

The amount needed to pay for tuition and other expenses, and the amount of scholarships and/or loans offered to cover those costs.

HOUSING

Where students live while attending school. Dorms, Residence Halls, and Student Apartments are examples of on campus options.

LOCATION

The city, state, or country in which a school is located. This could also describe the type of environment in which a school is located around (i.e. urban, suburban, rural, etc.).

SPORTS & EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Most universities will participate in NCAA sports. Intramural sports, clubs, and organizations are also offered on campus for all students.

ADMISSIBLE
The term used to describe an applicant who fulfills the admissions requirements set by an institution.

COURSE RIGOUR
Measure of how challenging an applicant’s combination of classes are (Advanced Placement, Honors, International Baccalaureate, College in the High School and Running Start are examples of classes that tend to be more challenging).

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES
Activities you may be involved in that are not high school courses (i.e. basketball, DECA, Culinary Club, a part-time job).

GRADE TREND
The improvement, regression, or constancy of course grades and GPA throughout an applicant’s academic history. Typically, colleges want to see a progression or upward grade trend with students’ grades.

HOLISTIC REVIEW
The review process which evaluates a prospective student’s application and considers the whole person. Different factors taken into consideration may include academic record, grade trend, activities list, personal statement(s), letter(s) of recommendation, etc.

TIPS
1. Read the directions. Make sure that you know exactly what the college is asking you to submit.
2. Proofread. Proofread. PROOFREAD.
COMMON APPLICATION
An application that students can use to apply to any colleges and universities that accept the Common Application. This application only needs to be filled out once; the information on this application is sent to multiple schools. Generally, a separate fee must be paid to each college for which the student applies to through the Common Application.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION
A written statement of endorsement on a student's behalf, usually by a teacher, coach, advisor or other adult who is able to speak to the student's achievements and/or character.

PERSONAL STATEMENT
An essay component of the college application that gives applicants the opportunity to tell a school about themselves (their hopes, ambitions, life experiences, inspirations, etc.) and give the school a more holistic view of the student.

TRANSCRIPT
The official document containing the record of a student's academic performance and testing history. The school at which a student is or has been officially enrolled must issue the transcript.

You've finished your application. Good work! Now the college is using some confusing words about your application status. Let us help you decode those words.

ACCEPTANCE
A student’s application to attend a college or university is approved and the student is able to enroll.

ADMISSIONS APPEAL
A student may contest an admissions decision made by a college or university if they believe that the college did not make the right decision. Applicants tend to have a justification of why they believe the wrong decision was made.

DEFERRED ENROLLMENT
An applicant is accepted but agrees to enroll in school in a future quarter/semester/year.

DENIAL
A student’s application to attend a college or university is not approved. The decision can be based on various factors (i.e. applicant did not fulfill the minimum admissions requirements, limited space, academic performance was below average, etc.).

DUALLY ENROLLED
Involves a student who is enrolled in two separate institutions at the same time.

WAITLISTED
An applicant is neither accepted nor denied and may be offered admission if spaces become available.

De·gree
/ di-grē / n.
An academic rank conferred by a college or university after examination or after completion of a course of study.
The price tag for college can be shocking. However, if you put in the effort and do a little research, attending college can be more affordable than you think. Here is your guide to understanding the basics of Financial Aid.

1. Fill Out Your FAFSA

Submit your FAFSA (fafsa.ed.gov) or WASFA (readysetgrad.org/wasfa) online.

FAFSA / WASFA considers

- FAMILY MEMBERS
- FAMILY INCOME, ASSETS, ETC.

Calculates EFC

ESTIMATED FAMILY CONTRIBUTION

Once accepted to the college, they will decide how much aid to provide you.

SCHOLARSHIPS

GRANTS

LOANS

Colleges will send a FINANCIAL PACKAGE with the amount of scholarships, grants, and/or loans.

You choose all or part of the financial package you would like to accept.
AWARD LETTER/FINANCIAL AID PACKAGE
An offer from a college or university that outlines the total amount in scholarships, grants, and loans the school is willing to provide if a student accepts admission and enrolls.

COST OF ATTENDANCE (COA)
The total amount it will cost to go to school per year. The COA includes tuition and fees, room and board, books, supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous expenses.

ESTIMATED FAMILY CONTRIBUTION (EFC)
This number is a result of information provided on the FAFSA or WASFA (i.e. income, household size, number of family members enrolled in college). It is used to determine a student’s eligibility for federal student aid as it represents how much a family can pay towards college expenses.

FAFSA (FREE APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID)
A free application for prospective and current students to determine eligibility for financial aid.

GRANTS
Funds awarded to students that do not have to be repaid. Grants are often based on financial need.

LOANS
Funds for students to borrow to pay for educational expenses. Students are required to repay loans with interest.

PRIVATE LOANS
A nonfederal loan provided by a lender such as a bank or credit union.

SCHOLARSHIPS
Money awarded to students based on varying achievements that do not have to be repaid.

SUBSIDIZED LOAN
A loan based on financial need for which the federal government pays the interest that accrues while the borrower is enrolled in classes or in deferment status.

UNSUBSIDIZED LOAN
A loan for which the borrower is responsible for paying the interest. Interest accrues from the date of disbursement and continues throughout the life of the loan.

WASFA (WASHINGTON APPLICATION FOR STATE FINANCIAL AID)
A free application for non-citizens to apply for student financial aid in Washington State. Upon successful completion of a WASFA, the college(s) you choose will use the information you provide to determine your eligibility to receive Washington State financial aid, including State Need Grant, the College Bound Scholarship, or State Work Study.

WORK-STUDY
A federal student aid program that provides part-time employment while enrolled in school to help pay for educational expenses. Work-study funds are generally considered an “earned income.”
There is more than one way to get a full ride to college. By taking the time to search and apply for scholarships, you can find enough money to pay for your education. Make this your part-time job! There are three common places you can find scholarships.

Websites like fastweb.com, collegeboard.com, and scholarships.com are great for searching for scholarships and spreading a wide net.

Universities/Colleges may provide two types of scholarships. One is awarded automatically based on merit (grades, service, etc.). Other scholarships require students to apply separate from their admission application. Check the Admissions or Financial Aid section of the school’s website.

Some businesses may offer scholarships that are not posted on online scholarship search engines. Check out different businesses’ websites to find out if they offer any scholarships.

ALEJANDRA | UW BOTHELL STUDENT

“During my senior year of high school, I applied for over 30 scholarships. I started by talking to my mentors and counselors and contacted local organizations. I spent as much time as possible working on my essays and resume, and tried to have amazing recommendation letters. By the end of my senior year, I graduated with $32,000 in scholarships. I kept applying for more scholarships in college, which is why, today, I have a total of $62,000 in scholarships for my undergraduate education. My advice is to never give up! Scholarships are for everyone and I know there is someone out there who wants to make an investment in you.”
Since you got all the way to the end of our dictionary, you obviously know the importance of college. Let us leave you with our final tips and send you on your way.

GO TO COLLEGE.
There are countless statistics out there that prove going to college will open up more doors for you than if you just have a high school diploma. Even if you aren’t sure about what you want to do in the future, college is the time to help answer those questions.

CHOOSE THE RIGHT FIT.
As you know, there are thousands of colleges to choose from. Do your research, take some tours, and decide what campus fits your needs and personality best. Being comfortable in your environment will help you become a better college student.

LOOK FOR SCHOLARSHIPS.
Make searching and applying for scholarships your part-time job. There are millions of dollars worth of scholarships out there. You just need to take the time to look and find them. This will save you a lot of money in the long run.

ASK QUESTIONS.
Don’t be afraid to ask questions. This new journey you are on can be a complicated process. Speak to your high school counselors, call up the colleges you are interested in, and talk to your friends who are in college. People want to help you. Sometimes you just need to ask the questions.
Camp\·pus
\`kam-pəs\ \n.
The area and buildings around a university, college, school, etc.
