OVERVIEW

As a member of the Student Senate, it is your responsibility to make this part of Student Government the most representative of each specific class and therefore the entire student body. Throughout the Senate term, each senator must constantly be reaching out to students and gathering information about their concerns. In this way, Senators are responsible for acting in the best interest of students, balancing and vetting executive decisions coming from ASUWB, and advocating for the student voice.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Attend each meeting of the Student Senate as determined at the beginning of the year;
- Serve as the directly elected representative and advocate for your class;
- Work with the ASUWB Executive Board to guide policy based on student opinion;
- Bring new initiatives and students needs to the Senate for consideration and approval;
- Make committee appointment recommendations to the ASUWB for approval for all student, faculty, staff and administrative committees with student representatives; and
- Market Senate activities and initiatives to the student body, gathering feedback, and promoting transparency within both branches of student government.
