Learn how scholarship and practice in the field of Disability Studies in Education is applied in community through accessible outdoor recreation.

This is a Community Based Learning course in partnership with the Outdoors for All Foundation. In-person meetings will be either at Stevens or Snoqualmie Pass.

This course will explore historical and philosophical foundations, the inclusion/exclusion of youth with disabilities and those labeled with disability, and allyship and social change.

B EDUC 391 / DISST 332 / LSJ 332

Disability & Society: A Focus on Community and the Outdoors

5 CREDITS / HYBRID / WI 2023

Faculty Contact -
Jason Naranjo, Ph.D.
Associate Teaching Professor
jnaranjo@uw.edu

CLASS SCHEDULE

Online - Fridays
- 1/6, 2/3, 3/3 - 10am - 11:30am

In-person/Training - Weekends
- 12/3 + 12/4, 12/10 + 12/11, 12/17
- 12/18 - 8:30am - 3pm
- 1/17 - 3/17 - 8am - 3pm (7 weekend days, Sat or Sun required)

Must have own snow equipment + gear. Deeply discounted seasons passes will be provided.