WELCOME OUR NEW PROGRAM MANAGER!
IAN ZAMORA!

Ian Zamora (he/him/his) is 1.5 generation man of Philippine descent. He comes from California, specifically, the Bay Area where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in Teaching with a minor in Asian American Studies from San José State University and his Master of Arts from University of San Francisco in Higher Education and Student Affairs. Ian has worked in multicultural affairs for the past few years doing work in both multicultural/cross-cultural centers as well as gender and sexuality resource centers. Central to his work is both Critical Hope and Hip Hop as he believes that we should create tangible conditions for students deal with situations in their lives and to live out as their whole selves in the different spaces they are present in. Outside of this work, he loves to play video games, rock climb, play basketball, DJ, and cook. If he had to do anything besides working in higher education, he would be doing specialty food pop-ups where he curates the menu and is the DJ for the event as well!
