

BNURS 424
Summer, 2018
Population-based Health in Community Practice

- For more information, weekly schedule and logistics, visit www.uwb.edu/rnbsn/current-students/bnurs424
- For registration information, visit the Quarterly Time Schedule at www.uwb.edu/registration/time

BNURS 424 A-TBD

BNURS 424 F-TBD

BNURS 424 B and D

Faculty: Katryna McCoy

UW Email: kmccoy@uw.edu

Topic: Promoting health outside the city limits: Engaging women in health promotion activities.
Possible Community Health Partners and their Geographic Locations*: (Mercy Housing Northwest – Snohomish County, S. Seattle, Kent, Tacoma)

*Community Partners are subject change and may not be available at the time of registration. For further information, contact the assigned faculty member via email.

BNURS 424 Section C

Faculty: Karen Bowman

UW Email: kb Bowman@uw.edu

Topic: "Voices From the Field in Occupational and Environmental Health"

Possible Community Health Partners and their Geographic Locations*: Bothell: potential projects are a community survey to assess disaster preparedness and Community Voices project interviewing original WA State police women.

*Community Partners are subject change and may not be available at the time of registration. For further information, contact the assigned faculty member via email.

BNURS 424 E

Faculty: Annie Bruck, DNP, MN, RN, COHN-S

UW Email: abruck@uw.edu

Topic: Partnerships to Promote Community Resilience

Possible Community Health Partners and their Geographic Locations*: Latino Educational and Training Institute (LETI) – Lynnwood; Everett Housing Authority – Everett; Mercy Housing – Lynnwood and Puget Sound Kidney Center – Mountlake Terrace

*Community Partners are subject change and may not be available at the time of registration. For further information, contact the assigned faculty member via email.
