The success is measured by the number of students in attendance or ticket sales. University of Washington Bothell students look forward each year to the events provided by the Intercultural Club. Intercultural Night: Highlights performances from all around the world and includes a dinner buffet featuring world cuisine. SAF is currently our only funding source. Intercultural club does co-sponsor with other cultural groups on campus.

How do you plan to assess the program or service?	I believe that success will be measured by the education and the experience provided by the program and the events. It will also be assessed by the cultural understanding that the attendees learn and take away from the events.
