Washington State law limits eligibility for the veterans tuition waiver to eligible veterans or national guard members who are Washington domiciliaries. Applicable Washington law defines “domicile” as follows:

The term "domicile" shall denote a person's true, fixed and permanent home and place of habitation. It is the place where the student intends to remain, and to which the student expects to return when the student leaves without intending to establish a new domicile elsewhere. (RCW 28B.15.012)

I, _____, hereby certify that under the foregoing definition, (student name)
my current permanent domicile is in Washington State.

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.
