

Earth Week at UW Bothell and Cascadia College

Celebrating our planet and a better relationship with it

Monday – April 18

5:45 - 7:45pm Film Screening – Racing Extinction DISC 162
Join the students of Conservation and Sustainable Development to watch and discuss the documentary that exposes the issues of endangered species and mass extinction.

Tuesday – April 19

3:30 - 5:00pm Recology Cleanscapes Presentation DISC-061
Come learn how a company can be a leader in reducing our waste footprint.

5:45 - 7:45pm Film Screening – Racing Extinction DISC 061
Join the students of Conservation and Sustainable Development to watch and discuss the documentary that exposes the issues of endangered species and mass extinction.

Wednesday – April 20

11:00 - 2:00pm Earth Day Information Fair – Part I Promenade
Tables featuring: Community Transit, UWV Dining Services, Facilities Services and Organic Lawn Care, City of Bothell, Friends of North Creek, UWV Campus Garden Working Group, SAgE Sammamish Valley Student Farm.
by Discovery Hall

11:00 - 2:00pm Wetland and Green Conservatory Tours Sarah Simonds
Join Professor Warren Gold and Kramer Canup – UWV Outdoor Wellness Leader - for a magical jaunt into the UWV/CC wetlands and to see all the great activity and potential of the Sarah Simonds Green Conservatory.
Green Conservatory
Tour 1 - 11:00am
Tour 2 - 1:00pm

3:30 - 4:30pm All About the UWB Environmental Programs DISC 369
Learn about the plans to revise the Environmental Studies and Environmental Science degrees, as well as create a new Earth System Science major

Thursday – April 21

11:00 - 3:00pm Earth Day Information Fair – Part II Mobius Hall
Fun activities and tables featuring: new triple bins (recycling, landfill, and compost bins) constructed by Cascadia engineering students; sustainability related student and community groups; free electronics recycling; soily awesomeness with Midori Sakura

12:00 - 1:00pm Becoming a Citizen Activist
Hear and interact with Nick Licata, author of Becoming a Citizen Activist

12:00 - 3:30pm Vegetable Planting in the Food Forest Food Forest
Join our Facilities Services crew and do something with a concrete, positive, and tasty impact by the Library

1:00 - 4:00pm Campus Sustainability Tours Mobius Hall
View the campus through the lens of sustainability with Cascadia College students of the Bachelor of Applied Science in Sustainable Practices Tour 1 – 1:00 PM
Tour 2 – 3:00 PM

2:00 - 3:00pm At the Intersection: Environmental Education and Social Justice Mobius Hall
A panel discussion and workshop hosted by Cindy Thomashaw and graduate students of Islandwood's Urban Environmental Education program

3:30 - 5:30pm Annual Garbage Sort Lawn between
Join the Introduction to Sustainable Practices class in sifting through the landfill waste stream collected from UWB and CC? What's in there? How much can be recycled and composted? UW1 and UW2

Friday – April 22

11:00 - 3:00pm Tree Planting w/ Facilities Services and OWLs Bike Path by the Boardwalk
The Earth Day Network's theme for this year is Trees for the Earth. Join our Facilities Services crew and the student Outdoor Wellness Leaders to do something with a concrete, positive impact. Students will be given a free picnic lunch ticket if they plant a tree!

11:00 - 3:00pm Earth Day Fun Fair Sports Fields
Join the Outdoor Wellness Leaders in celebrating Earth Day with art projects, lawn games, and the making of seed bombs and eggshell seed starters.

